

Scout Troop Plans Pancake Breakfast Next Saturday

Fathers and committeemen of Boy Scout Troop 948, will hold a pancake breakfast Saturday at Border's Market, 223rd and Avalon Blvd. Proceeds of the breakfast will be given to the troop, which is sponsored by the ILWU of Wilmington.

The troop is endeavoring to build up a fund so it can take boys on field trips and camps in the mountains and in other areas, according to Bill Kliefoth, spokesman for the organization.

"Here is an opportunity for all to aid the youth which is the aim of these fathers," Kliefoth said.

On the breakfast menu Saturday will be pancakes, pork sausages, milk, fruit juice, syrup, and coffee. Donations of 35 cents will be asked.

In addition to Kliefoth, committeemen in charge of the breakfast include James Wright, chairman; Ray Torres, Scoutmaster; Art Lafever, James Gladys, and Juvenal Rendon III.

U. S. Steel Promotes J. D. McCall

Appointment of a native Californian — J. D. McCall — as president of Columbia-Geneva Steel Division of United States Steel Corp., with headquarters in San Francisco, was announced Monday by Leslie B. Worthington, president of U.S. Steel.

In his new position, Mr. McCall succeeds Worthington, who was elected president of U.S. Steel on Nov. 10.

Until Monday, McCall, who is 48, had been vice president-operations of Columbia-Geneva, a post to which he was ap-

Advantages For Nursing In Navy Told

Navy nursing offers countless opportunities to young women planning to make nursing their careers, Navy Recruit-pointed in 1957. Prior to that, he had served for two years as the Division's general manager of operations.

From 1940 to 1942, Mr. McCall served as assistant general superintendent at Columbia Steel's Torrance Works. Returning to Pittsburgh Works as assistant general superintendent in 1942, he became general superintendent there in 1947. He was appointed assistant general manager - operations of the Columbia-Geneva Division in 1954.

ers at Gardena announced today.

Young women will be doing themselves an injustice not to examine the many advantages offered them as nurses in today's modern Navy.

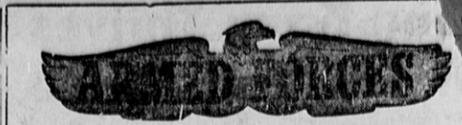

For example, did you know that the Navy will pay the last year's tuition, books, room and board for student nurses? This is just one of the ways the Navy has of showing you how anxious they are in having qualified young women become Navy nurses.

The Navy proves its eagerness to have you on board in many other ways also. It offers good pay with a secure future, while providing unlimited opportunities for travel, adventure and education. Why not compare your present plans with what the Navy has to offer. Make it a point to find out about all the advantages of Navy nursing from your local Navy Recruiter.
